

Daily Bulletin Tuesday Jan. 22, 2019

Attn. ECM Students The Yearbook photo will take place in the quad on Thursday at the beginning of 4th period, after break.

Attn. Students friendly reminder please do not hang out in the main office lobby at break, lunch or after school. Thank you.

Attention: those traveling to D.C. and N.Y. need to turn in their emergency medical release forms and their behavior contract by the end of this week (today). Turn in forms to Mrs. Housh's class room D-16. Thank you!

Attention CSF Members, applications for the Fall Semester 2018 are now available in Mrs. Wall's room, J-103. The deadline to turn in this application will be Friday, February 1st.

C&CC News and Events

1/24 Bite of Reality Financial Literacy Event for seniors last name N-Z and any seniors who were unable to attend the first round. You must have the Bite of Reality App 2 downloaded ahead of time. Contact Ms. Cancilla if you have any questions.

SPORTS: Attention spring sport athletes! Concussion education and baseline testing dates are set for the spring. If you are planning on playing baseball, softball, or are a pole vaulter or hurdler in track and have not already taken the baseline test this year, you need to attend one of the sessions. The next dates are Wednesday 1/23. All sessions will be held in A13 from 2:30-3:30.

As a reminder the Crab Feed is Saturday, January 26, 2019, buy your tickets now.